FRED WILLIAMS NEW HOME SALES WINS BIG AT THE 6TH ANNUAL SUMMIT AWARDS

Savannah, GA—Fred Williams Sales and Marketing team had one of its best years yet at the 6th Annual Greater Savannah Summit Awards winning several prestige awards. Lake Shore, the Fred Williams' 14-acre lake community, was the big winner of the evening, receiving the prominent title as Community of the Year. The sales and marketing team scored again with Best Sales Center—the Bait Shop, a 1,587 square foot sales center resembling a log cabin bait shop sitting on the lake at Lake Shore. The "Yes" campaign print ad rounded out the team's awards for Best Print Design.

"It is always a great honor to see our efforts recognized," said Stevie Williams, Sales and Marketing Director for Fred Williams New Home Sales. "The Fred Williams team has worked extremely hard this past year, and this hard work was rewarded at the Summit Awards." Stevie also took home a Sales Manager Summit Circle Gold Citation for over $25 million closed in 2009.

The 6th Annual Greater Savannah Summit Awards, hosted by the Sales and Marketing Council of Greater Savannah, were held March 11, 2010 at the Armstrong Atlantic Center. With record breaking entries submitted this year, awards were presented in several different categories to recognize outstanding achievement in new homes sales and marketing. To add credibility, the Summit awards are judge by an outside party. This years Summit Awards were judged by Northeast Florida Builders Association located in Jacksonville, Florida.
